Wow, summer is quickly coming to an end and it has been a great one.

Thunder Roads Florida has experienced lots of growth and we really appreciate the support of our ad clients, both old and new, our readers, staff and friends. Our 2016 goal has been to become the most widely distributed free motorcycle magazine in the state and we are there! Finishing out the year we plan to expand even more!! We have T-shirts, shop shirts and hats that will be available on the website soon. Don't forget to visit our website to view photos of our event coverage and to see dates for events added after we go to print.

Riding into our busy season we are looking forward to Phil Peterson's Miami to the Keys run mid-September and Biketoberfest mid-October. So check your oil and tire pressure, fill up your gas tank and get on the highway and ride.

We will be covering the Angel Flight Ride out of Beaver Bar and ending at Dirty Harry's on 9/4. Angel Flight provide air flights for those that need medical care in distant locations and do not have funds for airfare. We also plan on cooling our pipes at The Boat Bar in Port Orange for their free BBQ Bash on 9/4 with live music. The 9/11 Ride sponsored by Rue & Ziffra put on by the Knights of Inferno and the Blue Knights in Flagler County will be our ride of choice for 9/11. I cannot believe it has been 15 years...and I personally have no intention of allowing myself to forget those who lost their lives on that day! Our longest ad client is Glenn from Smiles and The Dog Pound Saloon and he is celebrating the 13th Anniversary of both of his bars. We will be at The Dog Pound's (in Bunnell) party on the 23rd so come out and join us! The Redneck Games at First Turn hosted by WHOG radio sounds like the party place for 9/24. And Raven is covering the American Legion Ride in Jacksonville on 9/24.

Sadly, I must mention that Boots, the co-owner of Dixie Biker, has passed and is riding the back seat with the love of her life Monk on the highway of heaven.

Ride safe and Ride on...

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Hi Beth,

Hope all is well with you. I just got my magazine in the mail and started reading it when I had to stop dead in my tracks. What Kneecap is (Hog wash) with his column no way man - we like his column a lot. So I don't know what old Rob "bad crud" Edwards likes, but we bikers like his (Kneecap's) stuff a lot. So keep up the good work Kneecap -- to all good work- Co-Pilot

Dear Al,

Thank you for letting us know you want to keep hearing Kneecap's "Opinion". I also want to take a minute to thank you for your loyal following of our magazine. You always keep in touch and I appreciate you!!!

Beth

To Whom It May Concern:

I'm writing because I read one of your magazines and discovered you're the largest, free, network motorcycle magazine in the world. I need an issue of Thunder Roads Magazine covering the Sturgis, S.D. Bike Rally. I'm currently incarcerated in Escambia County Road Prison. I'm originally from Colorado and was leaving the Spring Rally in Panama City when I was arrested in Pensacola. I was supposed to be in Sturgis to meet some friends of mine from the band Hooligan's Holiday who were scheduled to play at the Lake on August 12th or 14th. I was also supposed to help rebuild the Full Throttle Saloon and show off a couple of custom trikes me and my best friend built in his garage. Due to my incarceration I was not there and will have to reside in Pensacola until my legal issues are resolved. My next court date is August 23rd which explains my reason for not being there. I've been here since May 1st and unsure when I will be released. I would like to ask if you could send me the latest issue of Thunder Roads Magazine Florida so I can keep up with the most recent event happenings in the area and let me know how I can get information concerning the events at Sturgis Bike Rally going on as you're reading this letter. Could you help a brother out with these requests? It will be greatly appreciated. I would also like to help you in your efforts to keep the magazine in full operation. There isn't much I can do while incarcerated but your efforts will be rewarded anyway I can help to contribute upon my release.

Thank you for taking the time to read my letter and considering my request. Until next time hug everyone you know like it is the last hug!!! Ride safe and ride on. My address is at the top of this letter. Thank you!!!

Sincerely,

Willie Jarboe

Dear Willie,

Thank you for your interest in our publication. I have sent you the September issue which includes this letter. I didn't make it to Sturgis this year either. My bars and shackles were too many events in Florida to cover to escape to South Dakota! Have been there twice and hated to miss it this year. If one of the other states has coverage in their magazine I will send one. I do not usually send magazines to the prison system as often they return them as unable to deliver because of the content. So hopefully you will get this one before you are released. Hope the legal system lets you out soon! So you can live behind bars that are attached to a motorcycle!!!

TILTED & TWISTED AT THE TWISTED TEA BIKE NIGHT IN OCALA

BY LuLu

The rain forecast wasn't good and the band plays outside at the Tilted Kilt first Saturday of the month Bike Night. I wasn't sure if anyone would be there for our Twisted Tea party, so I was pleasantly surprised when the outside deck was full of people. Nefty and the girls kept us entertained; Nefty with games that included Musical Chairs and toilet paper & plungers! The girls with their tiny little kilts and great smiles! The band 4 Play was amazing! Plenty of folks tasted Twisted Tea for the first time! War Horse Harley-Davidson gave a $500 gift card away and John Atwater was thrilled to be the winner! The Tilted Kilt bike nights are the first Saturday evening from spring through November and the final one will feature Bearded Brothers Band who are awesome! As part of Twisted Tea Bike Night, we raised a bit of food and $76 cash for the food pantry of Marion County. Thanks to Nefty, the staff and the great peeps of Ocala for joining in on the fun!

John Atwater won the $500 gift card from War Horse H-D

Ride Responsibly, Please Obey All Florida State Laws On Mufflers & Noise

Nobodies' Opinion

By Billy "Kneecap" Braddock

Let's look at Rob's remedies: "put a muzzle on old "Kneecap" and take away his editorial privileges". Sounds like Rob is in favor of cen-

I don't normally respond to Letters to the Editor, that's the editor's job and she does a great job. However, since only .001% of readers will ever write a letter to the editor, the letter in the August 2016 issue from Rob "Bad Dude" Edwards needed my attention. His comments didn't offend me, mainly because I tend to offend not be offended. I've been writing for newspapers and magazines since school. I'm well-educated I spent 12 years in school, 2 in the 1st, 3 in the 2nd, 4 in the 3rd and 4 in the 5th. My best subject was math. I would have gone to college but I already knew how to flip hamburgers. I tried radio but I sounded like Foghorn Leghorn. TV didn't work either since I look like Phineas T. Bluster from the Howdy Doody show. By the way, I sat in the peanut gallery as a kid.

Comment that got my attention was "he has no business trying to write a political / social column in a magazine that we read for entertainment and news of the latest motorcycle happenings in the area." Rob, I hate to tell you but bikers are interested in more than "beautiful cycles and biker babes". They're not just people who want to have a nickname and ride around on motorcycles. They are concerned citizens, that know what politicians do can influence their income, health care, immigration, firearm rights, privacy protection, traffic laws, etc. They are not "delicate snowflakes" who need safe spaces, code words, trigger warnings, or micro-aggressions. Keeping an open mind is essential to the success of the American system of government. Democracy is fragile and demagogues are always lurking. Good citizens start with placing a premium on open minds, informed voting and demanding that politicians offer practical solutions, not scapegoats or pie-in-the-sky promises. They don't treat their politics like their sports teams. They think, they just don't root.

ensorship. A force that represses ideas, free speech, impulses, and feelings. Anyone for Russia, North Korea, China, Iran, or pick your favorite communist country? Another remedy was to put him in charge of obituaries and or recipes. My editor has already put me in charge of an obituary, my own which I have skillfully written. I'm also a very good cook so if you want recipes Rob I'll send them to you. At least he didn't insult me by calling me normal. Rob, you need to pay attention to happenings like the Patriot Guard, Rolling Thunder, and 9/11 Ceremonies, to see how patriotic and political bikers are. "OOHRAH". Rob, keep reading and learning from my column and we will both be happy.

I see we have a woman running for president. If she is elected her first act upon entering office should be to put the toilet seat down.

Remember, Obamacare only works if you don't.

I just read a statistic that said criminals commit less crime after being shot.

Maybe ISIS will stop beheading people if we explain to them they should be focusing on climate change.

What makes America great, is that you can be a gutless, useless, freeloading parasite who pisses on America and everything it stands for, and still get a check from the government every month and that's true even if you are not the president.

BLACK WIDOW'S INAUGURAL FALLEN FIRST RESPONDERS POKER RUN

by Ron Cox

Charlotte County Sheriff Bill Prummell and Black Widow owner Bert King

Two hundred fifty riders/passengers signed up at Black Widow Harley-Davidson in Port Charlotte on August 7th to ride in the Inaugural Black Widow Fallen First Responders Poker Run.

The 40-mile ride started and ended at Black Widow with card stops at Ace Hardware in Cape Haze, Leverocks Restaurant in Placida and the Englewood Events Center in Englewood. Angelina Connor won the Poker Run and a $200 Black Widow gift card with a full house 9's over queens. Stephen Byrne "won" the $100 gift card with the worst hand of an 8 high nothing.

Breakfast, a swag bag and t-shirt was included with the registration fee. Charlotte County Sheriff's Deputies put on a riding skill and K-9 demonstration and showed off some of their equipment.

Before the riders headed out there was a bike blessing. Upon their return there was an all afternoon after ride celebration.

Charlotte County Sheriff Bill Prummell spoke about how first responders appreciate this kind of support for the work they perform.

Funds raised ($4,500) will benefit the Charlotte County Explorer Unit and Concerns Of Police Survivors(C.O.P.S.) an organization that provides emotional and financial support to families that have lost a loved one in the line of duty.

Orlando H-D'S HOGS FOR HOPE RIDE GREATLY SURPASSES FUNDRAISING GOALS FOR ONEORLANDO FUND

by Katie Donzanti & Sara Brady
PHOTOS Tina Branam & Nickolas Wolf

Orlando-Harley Davidson's "Hogs for Hope" ride more than doubled its fundraising goals last week when more than 500 motorcycle riders drove past the Pulse Nightclub to show support for the victims of the June 12 tragedy and raise money for the OneOrlando.org fund.

The ride raised $45,500 more than double its original $20,000 goal. Accompanied on Sunday July 24th by Orlando Police, more than 500 riders came together and rode through downtown Orlando, stopping briefly in front of the Pulse Nightclub, the site of the June 12 tragedy that left 49 people dead and more than 50 others wounded.

"I am enormously proud of Orlando Harley-Davidson and our motorcycling community for coming together to help the Pulse attack victims and their families," said Anne Deli, owner of Orlando Harley-Davidson and who organized the ride. "As we rode past Pulse and the Honor Guard we had posted there, it was an incredibly emotional moment. The victims and their families have so many needs due to the injuries or trauma caused by the accident. The amount raised was more than double our expectation which shows the love and unity of so many to help and support their long term needs."

The parade ride departed from Camping World Stadium (formerly the Citrus Bowl) and travelled to the Orlando Harley-Davidson Historic Factory Dealership at 3770 37th St. Orlando. The parade was led by 49 flag bearers representing each of the victims, and escorted by the Orlando Police Department and its newly introduced "Orlando United" SUV Patrol Car. Riders rolled through downtown Orlando passing the Pulse Night Club where an American Legion Honor Guard stood at attention to honor the victims and their families.

The post-ride event included remarks from honored guests, City of Orlando Commissioner Patty Sheehan and Commissioner Regina Hill, both who participated in the parade. Also riding in the parade was Orlando Police Department's Deputy Chief Orlando Rolon and Lt. Jim Young, Orlando Police's newly appointed LGBT Community Liaison. Local band, Three Forks Road, entertained guests with an afternoon of music while they enjoyed food, drinks, a silent auction of vendor donated product in an atmosphere that was uniquely Orlando Harley-Davidson. Rounding out the afternoon was a series of dance showcases by local performers who have performed at PULSE, previously.

In addition to event proceeds including ticket sales, food contributions and silent auction, Orlando Harley-Davidson contributed $500 from Touring Motorcycle sales during the week of 7/17-7/25, then expanded to all motorcycles for the event, to the OneOrlando Fund.

SOLDIER SONGS & VOICES

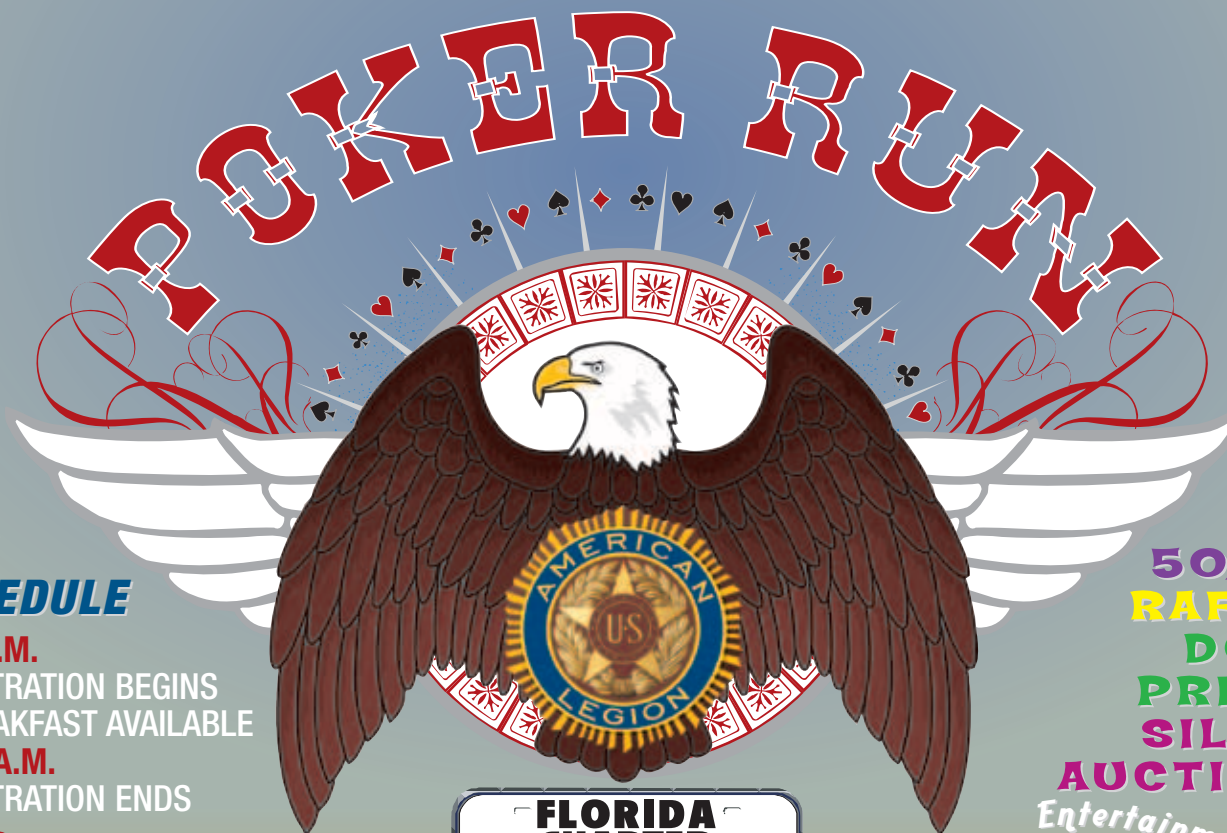

By Jim Moran

A Charity Benefit for Soldier Songs and Voices was held at Mango Jo's in Ruskin on July 23rd. Soldier Songs and Voices is a national nonprofit organization that began in Austin, Texas with a mission to help veterans heal from the trauma of battle through music. Soldier Songs and Voices provides musical instruction, instruments and songwriting workshops to help veterans express their feelings and experiences of war. Founder of the Sarasota/Manatee chapter Ray Hodges and singer songwriter Debbie Hood did a fantastic job with the event and Cathy, owner of Mango Jo's was a perfect host. The event raised over $1,200 for the cause which will be used to purchase guitars for veterans and to create CD's of veterans' music to sell at future fundraisers. Among the performers were Ray Hodges, Debbie Hood, Dean Johansen, Bill Vinhage and Gerry Bell among others. Special thanks to all of the American Legion Riders, Riverview, and Nam Knights who came out to support the cause and to Dragon for smokin' the chicken and sausage.

For more information on Soldier Songs and Voices visit www.soldiersongsandvoices.org/ssv or call Ray Hodges at 941-448-0952, or email hodgesr7@gmail.com

ORLANDO EAGLES RIDER'S RIDE FOR PULSE

by Lori "Shutta Bitch" Mobouck ~ Fire & Iron
MC-Station 10 Secretary and Region 1 Secretary

It seems like most mornings we wake up to some kind of tragedy these days. Recently, I was honored to join a group of bikers riding for the Pulse victims and their families. I woke not knowing how the day would go, knowing that day changed so many lives. I was asked to write an article, but to tell you the truth, didn't realize how hard it was going to be because I wanted to honor all that were directly affected on that day. The day was emotional but with everyone there, we all stood together for the same reason. The turnout was amazing. The ride visited different places, police stations, fire departments (some of which were on scene that morning) and various others establishments that had contributed with donations.

As I approached Pulse, there were a few people already at the memorial site. It was so quiet but you could hear what they were thinking. I could only imagine the shock and horror each person must have felt not knowing why this was happening and which way they should run to feel safe again. Overwhelming emotions changing the survivors' lives and the victim's families lives forever. As the world watched in shock as the story unfolded, we prayed for them with hope in our hearts. Hope for this world not be filled with so much violence.

Wishing you all "wicked" safe and fun travels!!!

RIDE FOR ELI HOLLEY BY LuLu

Sadness isn't something young people expect to deal with. But when Eli Holley and his passenger died from injuries sustained in a motorcycle accident, sadness hit their young friends and family hard. A run was organized in his memory and the Boot Hill Saloon was packed. I saw lots of young riders who probably hadn't been on a run for someone they knew and loved before...in a perfect world you would hope they wouldn't have to again, but as we older riders know...tragedy strikes without warning and losses are something we simply endure. But rides like this one for Eli are healing, the smiles of his friends telling stories about Eli are the beginning and if there is a heaven above I know Eli would be smiling along with his friends for remembering him...

K.I.S.S. IN THE KITCHEN

KEEP IT SIMPLE SWEETIE

Composed & edited by: Toni McCoy Shearon aka "Thunder MaMa" of Thunder Roads National Founders' Office.

I have chosen this name for our monthly recipe page, as that was what my mother, rest her soul, always used to say when I would assist her in the kitchen. Mom was an avid supporter of the K.I.S.S. (KEEP IT SIMPLE SWEETIE) method of cooking. I now, more than ever, truly appreciate her philosophy of always taking shortcuts where you can, as long as your ultimate outcome is that of down home, labor of love cooking.

SIMPLE FETTUCINI ALFREDO WITH KIELBASA & SCALLIONS

- 1 Bottle of Fettuccini Sauce (next to spaghetti sauce at any grocery)
 - 1 Box of Fettuccini pasta or Linguini pasta; your preference
 - 1 Package of Kielbasa (2 if you want really meaty)
 - 1 Bundle of scallions (green onions) - large chop including the green part
- Put your big pot of water on for pasta; remember to salt well. Cut your kielbasa in 1/2 inch pieces and sauté in margarine or olive oil, whichever you prefer. Sauté until you get a good caramelization on all pieces of meat. Remove and drain on paper towels. Take same pan and throw your chopped up scallions in and let them get a little browned. Drain your pasta, dip out a 1/4 cup of the water. Put drained pasta into a big ceramic bowl, add a heaping tablespoon of quality margarine or butter, then add the Fettuccini sauce, salted water and the kielbasa & scallions. *Sautéed mushrooms would be excellent also. Blend it all together; top with real Parmesan cheese and open a good wine. Serve w/ hot, crusty bread. This is so inexpensive to make and it tastes deliciouso'.

JUST THAT QUICK PEPPERONI GRILLED CHEESE & BASIL

- 2 Slices of a Hearty, Crunchy Bread. Heat a cast iron skillet to medium heat. Take each slice of bread and butter each side, then spread ricotta cheese on both sides and sprinkle with Parmesan cheese. Next spoon on a quality pizza sauce, tear pieces of basil and lay on one side of bread. Then add 12 pieces of quality pepperoni and then layer with slices of real mozzarella. Put a dollop of butter in skillet, let it melt down, place sandwich in skillet and let sit until moves easily; flip when golden brown and then brown the other side. Let cool a minute and then slice. Heat up extra sauce to dip it in.
- So easy to make. Kids & kids at heart love this gooey, crunchy samich.

LIVE, LAUGH, BELIEVE & LOVE, BIKERS.

THINK OUTSIDE OF THE BOX FLAVORS TO ADD TO YOUR BURGER, BUT ALWAYS WITH THE PERFECT PARTNER ...CHEESE

- Thin Slices of Grilled Pineapple
- Sautéed Mushrooms, Yellow Peppers & Onions
- Pizza Sauce & Pepperoni Slices
- Grilled Rainbow Radishes
- Grilled Cucumbers
- Crisp Bacon & French Dressing
- Long Strands of Grilled Corn off the Cob
- Mac N' Cheese & Bacon
- Walnut, Cranberry & Bleu Cheese Mix
- Fried Spinach Leaves w/ Fried Onion Strands
- Fried Green Tomatoes w Hot Sauce Mayo
- Fried French Green Beans w/ Chili Flakes
- Sautéed Sprouts & Carrots
- Artichoke - Spinach Dip
- Taco Dip & Crushed Fritos
- Crushed Cheetos; Traditional or Hot Fried
- Spicy Peanut Satay Sauce

E-Z EST APPLE SPICE COBBLER EVER!

- To your own crockpot (slow cooker) add:
 - 2 Cans of 20 oz. Cans of Apple Pie Filling
 - 1 Box of Spice Cake Mix
 - 1 Stick of Salted, Real Butter, cut in half
- Pour both cans of apples into crockpot, dump entire package of Apple Spice Cake mix directly on top. On top of cake mix place the halves of butter stick.
- Cook for 2 hours to 2 hrs. & 15 mins. You want it cooked but still very moist. Scoop into wide bowls and top with quality vanilla ice cream. Super Delish! Try varieties; peaches w/ vanilla cake mix, cherries w/ chocolate fudge or blueberries w/ lemon cake mix. Get creative!

WE'RE DIFFERENT IN THE SOUTH.....and we like it that way and ain't about to change.

Aint is an actual word and essentially means "no way in hell".

A possum is a flat animal that sleeps in the middle of the road.

There are 5,000 types of snakes and spiders and 4,998 of them live in the South.

If it grows, it'll stick ya. If it crawls, it'll bite cha.

Onced and Twiced are words.

For is pronounced fer.

It is not a shopping cart, it is a buggy!

Jawl-P? Means, Did you all go to the bathroom?

People actually grow, eat and like okra.

Fixinto is one word. It means I'm going to do that.

There is no such thing as lunch. There is only dinner and then there's supper.

Iced tea is appropriate for all meals and you start drinking it when you're two.

When a Southern woman says "well, bless your heart, sugar", she either really means it or she's literally telling you that you're a dumb-ass twit.

"There's a story there" means someone has a really juicy past.

The word jeet is actually a question meaning, 'Did you eat?'

You don't have to wear a watch, because it doesn't matter what time it is, you work until you're done or it's too dark to see.

We fly the American flag alongside the Southern flag with equal pride.

You don't Push buttons, you Mash em'.

Ya'll is singular. All ya'll is plural.

All the festivals across the state are named after a fruit, vegetable, grain, insect, or animal.

You only own seven spices: salt, pepper, garlic powder, mustard, hot sauce and ketchup.

The local papers cover national and international news on one page, but require 6 pages for local high school sports, the motor sports, and gossip.

You believe that the first day of deer season is a national holiday.

You know what a hissyfit is and if the young-uns throw one in a store, they'll know the meaning of

"wear the hide off your tail".

Fried catfish is the other white meat.

We don't need no dang Driver's Ed. If our Mama says we can drive, we can drive!

There's unique names to designate town areas; "Screeching Cat's Holler", "Squirrel Tail Ridge", "Dogs Humpin' Cliff", "Shotgun Waterin' Hole" or "Bucksnot Hill". Even if you aint from the South, when you visit us, you dang sure will be talkin' like us by the time you git on down the road back yonder to home.

Bye Bye now; y'all come back real soon, ya' hear?

My dog sleeps about 20 hours a day.

He has his food prepared for him.

His meals are provided at no cost to him.

He visits the Dr. once a year for his checkup and again during the year, if any medical needs arise. For this he pays nothing, and nothing is required of him.

He lives in a nice neighborhood in a house that is much larger than he needs, but he is not required to do any upkeep.

If he makes a mess, someone else cleans it up.

He has his choice of luxurious places to sleep,

He receives these accommodations absolutely free.

He is living like a king and has absolutely no expenses whatsoever.

All of his costs are picked up by others who earn a living.

I was just thinking about all this, and suddenly it hit me like a ton of bricks ~

My dog is a damn Congressman!

A circus owner runs an ad for a lion tamer and two people show up.

One is a biker in his mid-forties, and the other is a gorgeous blond in her mid-twenties.

The circus owner tells them, "I'm not going to sugar coat it. This is one ferocious lion. He ate my last tamer so you two had better be good or you're history."

"Here's your equipment --chair, whip and a gun."

"Who wants to try out first?" The girl says, "I'll go first."

She walks past the chair, the whip and the gun and steps right into the lion's cage.

The lion starts to snarl and pant and begins to charge her.

About halfway there, she throws open her coat revealing her beautiful naked body.

The lion stops dead in his tracks, sheepishly crawls up to her and starts licking her feet and ankles. He continues to lick her entire body for several minutes and then rests his head at her feet.

The circus owner's jaw is on the floor. "I've never seen a display like that in my life." - He turns to the biker and asks, "Can you top that?"

The biker says, "Hell yeah; just get that lion outta' there."

Yesterday afternoon I went to our local gun shop to get a small handgun for personal protection.

When I was ready to pay for the pistol and ammo, the cashier said, "Strip down, facing me."

After the hysterical shrieking stopped, I realized that she was telling me how to place my credit card in the card reader.

Simple case of miscommunication. Geez!
