SOUTHERN COUNTRY CUSTOMS REVVING UP FOR 2025!

By LULU

REV UP.
RIDE OUT.
ROCK ON.

FEBRUARY 28 – MARCH 9

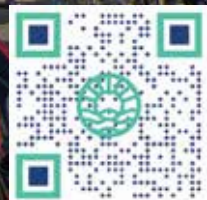

If you have been on the Broken Spoke Saloon property in Ormond Beach during Bike Week or Biketoberfest, you probably stopped in to visit Rusty and Steve Wallace. They have made the Broken Spoke their home away from home, displaying their amazing custom bikes. Rusty Wallace and his son, Steve have taken “tinkering” on their own bikes to an insane level. I wanted to delve into how this came about and what sets them apart from other builders, as in this economy, some builders have struggled to stay afloat, yet Southern Country Customs has sixteen custom bikes commissioned to build and in six short years they have built 132!

Steve who is the master builder, raced cars like his dad for fifteen years, and his home in Mooresville, North Carolina, about twenty-five miles north of Charlotte, is where his “race shop” has morphed into a “motorcycle shop.” He said he and his father have been on two wheels as long as he can remember. His dad raced motocross as a kid, Steve laughingly claims “100 years ago” even way before becoming the 1989 Winston Cup Champion. Even when they both were racing cars, they were always tinkering on and accessorizing bikes and that is what led to building bikes. Of course, coming from the NASCAR mentality, speed and high performance is a must for these bikes. Rusty at one time was sponsored by Harley-Davidson and Miller Lite, and he raced to Victory Lane several times. So, the entry into bike building seems like a natural progression. Since launching Southern Country Customs in 2019 quoting Steve, “the bike building has gone ape shit and there is no time for auto racing anymore”. He works seven days a week and takes what he does “very, very seriously.” His goal is to be “the best at it and to build high performance bagger bikes that are “SHOW and BIG TIME GO!” And this, with knowledge acquired over the years, is what makes Southern Country Customs so successful. Rusty also builds and has been the sole builder of his personal bikes which are all masterpieces. He has remained heavily involved in the day-to-day operations of the business since the launch of the brand.

So, what sets Southern Country Customs apart? These rides are sleek looking pieces of art with incredible paint jobs. Chris Fox & Jason Vanderwoude are his painters of choice. The bikes are built for riding and performance. The bikes can cruise at 100 miles an hour as straight as an arrow. These are hardcore high-performance motorcycles. These bikes are extreme and although they come with an extreme price tag ranging between $70,000 and $130,000 the customers line up to buy them. One customer in Maryland has purchased nine of their builds, and another Maryland client has purchased three!!! And here is what I think really makes these bikes sellable...customer service and satisfaction! Satisfaction with the ride! The paint! The service! They even bring a mobile workshop trailer with every spare part to their bikes, including engines and transmissions, to the rallies and never leave a customer hanging! I asked Steve had any reality TV approached him about a show like the old OCC and his response was quick, “Yes and my answer was no, I am not looking for fame or stardom, I’m just focused on building my brand and reputation in the industry.”

Steve built forty bikes by himself but as he realized he couldn’t keep up with the orders coming in, he added Josh Schoelkopf who can do it all, Alex Rodriguez as a fabricator and Charlie as a mechanic. Lee Gibbs takes care of sales and can be reached at 704-740-0705 for questions or stop in and see them at the Broken Spoke Saloon on US 1 in Ormond Beach February 28th-March 9th from noon to 6:30p daily. They will have sixteen of their creative builds onsite so come out and take a look!

For the 84th year, Bike Week returns to Daytona Beach From Feb. 28 – Mar. 9 2025. Follow the asphalt until you hit the sand, then enjoy live music, races, gatherings and more. Learn more at DaytonaBikeWeek2025.com.

LETTER FROM THE EDITOR

In my travels I feel excitement in the air about Daytona Bike Week 2025. Anticipation is building as the "Big One" is only 4 weeks away. This year's rally starts a week earlier than usual on Friday Feb 28th and ends on Sunday 3/9. Make your plans people and come on. But first things first. Personally, I am excited about the upcoming Thunder by The Bay weekend in Sarasota. If you have never been to this one, I can tell you that it's a lot of fun. This is one of the top four favorite Florida weekend rallies for Thunder Roads Florida. First off, you are helping a very worthy children's charity, and Sarasota Fairgrounds is the perfect venue for Concerts, vendors, bike shows, a sound off, bike games and more. Three great headliners entertain this year, Blue Oyster Cult on Friday night, Grand Funk Railroad tries again this year on Saturday night after being rained out last year, and Creed Fisher on Sunday. This event kicks off on Valentines Day so grab your sweetie and check it out. I can't wait!! Slide the Daytona 500 in there we are rockin' into full blown spring rally season. Trump is our new president, so I have to say how happy I am about that too, MAGA for the next 4 years! Get on your bikes and ride and I'll...

See ya on the road,

T. J.

Just finished a great weekend at Cotee River Bike Fest, the coverage of that event will be in the April issue as the Bike Week (March) issue always fills up with Bike Week event ads, etc. But the fall rally was rescheduled due to the west coast's hurricane damage and the weather forecaster predicted rain all weekend, but it ended up well attended and decent weather. Tina and Steve Farrell are the organizers behind this charity rally and put their heart and soul into this each year. Gator Ken and Jeani joined us for the first time as she is retired now. They really seemed to enjoy New Port Richey's downtown area and couldn't get over the number of bars! This event is two main stages of music for 3 days and 2 side street stages with music too. It is a nice rally on a beautiful downtown river area with a poker run that benefits Fire & Iron and the entire rally benefits charity. Not sure whether they will schedule the next one in October again or change the whole thing to January in the future but should know by the event article. Thunder By the Bay is up next and hope to see some of our friends there in Sarasota!

Jeani, Steve Farrell organizer of Cotee River Bike Fest, me

On another subject, I promised a lady that asked me recently to mention how important screening for prostate cancer is for our motorcycling men! As a cancer nurse from my life before publisher of Thunder Roads Florida, I know that early diagnosis of this is critical for the best outcome. If you are over forty-five, you should ask your doctor about a PSA blood test. My brother is a primary care physician and was diagnosed at age 48, and with robotic surgery he is cancer free and has no post-surgical complications. A test for kidney stones found his cancer very early. Mostly they only tell you to have the test after 50, I think it should be forty-five! We hear all the time how important breast cancer awareness is, how important pap smears are, etc.! Well men, pick up the phone and ask your docs to order a simple blood test. Be safe...not sorry! The old rectal exam fears use to keep men from getting checked for this and the blood test doesn't come with that worry.

Have fun at bike week, ride a new road and don't forget your sunscreen.

ROCKIN' IN THE NEW YEAR AT BOOT HILL SALOON 2024

By Lulu

Known for great rock and roll, Boot Hill Saloon is the oldest party on Main Street in Daytona Beach. The perfect spot to toast in the New Year. The street was closed to traffic, the New York City-like ball drop at midnight is iconic and then fireworks off the pier at the end of Main Street was a perfect way to toss out 2024. Boot Hill was slammed, and the bartenders were in the weeds quite a bit as Main Street Station was unexpectedly closed for business! Everyone was patient and just enjoyed the two bands of the evening, Greye and Vermillion. It was a bit cold, so we headed home after the ball dropped. Boot Hill has big plans for Bike Week 2025 including a Twisted Tea Bikini Contest at 3-5p on Sunday the 2nd and great bands during the whole rally. If you are in the greater Daytona area, "The Boot" also does Bike Night on Wednesdays so ride in for the fun

Yogi's Garage Holiday Hoedown at Rhonda's Neighborhood Bar

By Lulu

Rhonda's Neighborhood Bar in Sanford has a really cool yearly event put on by Yogi. It is a ride in Chopper Show held in her bar's backyard. Live music was by Rewind, a cool rockabilly style group. This is a great bar in the Sanford area, and they feature a first Friday bike night with live music and food trucks from 8p-12a, the February one will be February 7th. They are located at 2617 W. Orlando Dr. Find their music and events on Facebook. Say hi to Rhonda for us!

One of the main indicators of a solid, successful business is its longevity. One such business is Tri City Cycles in Bunnell. 27 years ago, Scott McNitt purchased the motorcycle shop in Flager Beach that had been in operation for 20 years prior. Since then, he has continued to serve the motorcycling community in Volusia and Flager County. Seven years ago, Scott moved across the bridge to 306 N. State St. in Bunnell. As far as we can figure, Tri City Cycles is the longest operating service and repair shop in the area. According to Scott, his formula for success is being fair and honest with his customers while doing good, reliable work. Tri City employs two full time mechanics, Kyle and Larry, that share four lifts. In many cases, your job is completed, and you can pick up your bike on the same day. Normally they have 200+ tires in stock and a huge supply of batteries on the shelf. They also carry genuine Harley parts. Oil changes, fluid flushes, tire installations and general maintenance is performed on all makes and models at reasonable rates. Harleys, Metrics, and Indian are all welcome. Tri City is a Dunlop Pro dealer, and he is happy to notify the customer about factory rebates when they are available throughout the year. Thunder Roads Florida is proud to say that Scott and Tri City is one of our longest ad clients and have been with us since the beginning, 18 years ago! We consider him not only a client but a longstanding friend. Shop hours are Mon-Fri 9am-6pm but during Bike Week they open on Saturday and Sundays too. Pick up is available if you are stuck. When you need help with your bike, call Scott and tell him Thunder Roads Florida sent you 386-437-7000.

Amber's Annual Poker Run

By Lulu

We were not able to make this event as we were scheduled to be out of town. But Sheldon called me about the loss of their bartender, Amber, who died in a car accident after leaving her shift at The Hideaway Bar & Grill last year. She was a mother of a young child, Grayson. So, Sheldon and Lisa owners of The Hideaway and the local bar community are hosting a yearly event to benefit an education fund for Grayson. Lots of locals spent a chilly day riding from The Hideaway to Idle Awhile Resort in Georgetown, Longs Log Cabin in Welaka, Oasis in San Mateo, Cow Catchers in Pomona Park and back to The Hideaway Bar & Grill in Pomona Park. This will be a yearly event in the beginning of January. Get ready to ride! Thanks to all involved for caring for Amber's son! I must admit I snatched the photos from several Facebook posts to shine light on the good work of the biking and bar community!

HARD ICED TEA TWISTED TEA BIKE NIGHT AT BOOT HILL SALOON

By LULU

On Wednesday nights at Boot Hill Saloon, you will always find great music. At our Twisted Tea Bike Night in January "the Boot" featured the band Alias and they kept the place rockin.' Twisted Tea sampling was done by our beautiful friend Katye. And the peeps were happy to get Twisted giveaways like koozies, shop rags, sunglasses, or bandanas. Boot Hill's bike night starts later than most kicking off at 8pm! Ride in for one and have a rocking fun time! Our February Twisted Tea night will be at OBs in Deland on February 12th with live music by Deadlanders starting at 6pm. Come on out and play!

THE BOAT'S MONTHLY MYSTERY RIDE

By LULU

Each month The Boat Bar in Port Orange hosts a Mystery Ride with a 50/50 at the end and food. $5 is the cost and some lucky duck goes home with half the stash, the other half pays for your dinner! This month, Glenn won the cash! It was exceptionally chilly, but we were happy to see a bunch of our long-time Mystery riders back in the saddle after recent medical stuff kept them off the road! For the first time ever, Jack, who is known for riding in sleeveless attire regardless of the temp, had long sleeves! First stop was Lost Lagoon on US 1 at the New Smyrna Airport. Great Bloody Mary's! Our stops included a new beer & wine/motorcycle shop in Edgewater called Good Fellas Beer & Wine, owned by bike builder Jim Lynch of Bike Show Mafia fame. We then took a great ride across Maytown Rd. to Foxhead Lounge. Next, Royce and Lorie won the Christmas Sweater Contest at Sorry Charlie's where Crashrocket was playing. Then we headed to dinner at The Boat Bar. If you are looking to make some riding friends, the monthly ride ALWAYS has great peeps riding along with us. Next ride is Sunday, February 16, no longer on Saturdays since NFL season ended! Get on your bike and join us. KSU 11am at The Boat Bar on US 1 in Port Orange.

JOKER'S WILD

For his 90th Birthday, and it being Valentine's Day and such, Bubba's best buddies decided to pool their money, go all out, and put him up in a 5 star hotel and hire him a Very expensive and definitely a Bo Derek 10 looking Call Girl.

That evening she rang the doorbell (yes, 5 Star hotels have door bells) and stood there looking like a vision from Heaven with a long sheer white dress, cut very low, her breasts pushed up and out, she smelled delicious and the black leather and lace bra and panties looked very promising to Bubba.

He opened the door in his saggy boxer undies and an old grease stained tee and immediately just looked her up and down several times and actually whistled and said, "I've either died and gone to the Promised Land or you've got the wrong room sweetheart." My hearing's not that good but my eyesight w/ glasses on is perfect!"

The young woman threw her head back and laughed and said, "No, I'm exactly where I'm supposed to be Bubba. Your generous buddies paid a hefty amount of money for me to arrive at your room, yell "Happy Birthday Bubba!!!" which she proceeded to do, "and also Bubba my main reason for being here is to offer you Super Sex!! "So, my sweet new friend, what will it be?"

Bubba just stood and gazed upon the most beautiful woman he had ever seen in his life, and that was saying something in and of itself, looked her up and down again and replied, "Sweetheart, at my age, looking at you is enough, so I'll just go on and have the soup."

The Teacher was writing numbers on the chalk board and as much as she typically avoided calling on Little Joey, she knew he was really good at Math, probably the best in the class, so she asked him to stand up and said, "Joey, we all know how to count and write numbers up to the number 5, but why don't you come up and give it a go at going up to 10. Little Joey shuffles up to the chalk board and with no problem what so ever he yells out "Six, Seven, Eight, Nine & Ten," and he writes out the numbers perfectly.

"Joey, that's just amazing! Now, by any chance, do you know what comes after the number 10?" Little Joey shrugs his shoulders and says, "Well heck yeah, everyone knows it's Jack, Queen, King and Ace!"

Arguing with a woman is like reading the Software License Agreement. In the end, you ignore your better instincts and just click "I Agree."

He didn't get her anything for Valentine's Day, came home drunk, so she went to her magic cabinet and grabbed a stick of her sage and lit it and was walking around him in wide, slow circles and he said it was irritating his skin. Yeah, she smiled, I bet it is demon.

I shall take you to bed and have my way with you. I will make you ache, shake, and sweat until you moan and groan. I will make you beg me to stop! When I am finished you will be weak for days. Sincerely, the Flu

A woman goes into a shop and asks for a comfy maternity bra. The Assistant asks, "What bust?" The woman says, "Well, I'd say it was the fookin' cheap condom he prob got in a gumball machine.

A recent survey indicates that the Smartphone is now the number one hand held device. The penis has slipped to second place.
