Understanding Comparative Negligence in Florida Motorcycle Accidents

If you're involved in a Florida motorcycle accident, it's crucial to understand how the state's modified comparative negligence law affects your ability to recover compensation. Since 2023, you can only recover damages if you're 50% or less at fault, with any award reduced by your percentage of fault. Determining fault is complex, involving traffic laws, road conditions, and the actions of multiple parties—all of which can significantly impact your case.

FLORIDA'S MODIFIED COMPARATIVE NEGLIGENCE SYSTEM

Florida's shift to a modified comparative negligence system in 2023 introduced one key change:

- › (1) You must be 50% or less at fault to recover damages

For instance, if you're found 30% at fault in an accident with $100,000 in damages, you can recover $70,000.

However, BEING 51% AT FAULT ELIMINATES YOUR RIGHT TO COMPENSATION.

Motorcyclists face unique challenges under this system. Without the same PIP coverage as car drivers, filing a lawsuit is often necessary to recover damages. Helmet use, while not always required, can influence fault percentages and recovery potential. Strong evidence and expert legal assistance are essential for maximizing your compensation.

EVIDENCE AND FAULT IN MOTORCYCLE ACCIDENTS

Establishing fault requires robust evidence, such as:

- › PHOTOS
- › MEDICAL RECORDS
- › WITNESS TESTIMONY
- › POLICE REPORTS

Scene photos and videos document critical details like vehicle positions and road conditions, while medical records demonstrate injury severity. Witness accounts and accident reconstruction experts can clarify events, and police reports often include valuable information on traffic violations and road conditions.

Multiple parties may share fault from other drivers to government agencies responsible for road maintenance. Each party's actions are scrutinized under Florida's negligence laws. For example, if you're texting while riding and a car runs a red light, you may share fault, which impacts compensation but doesn't disqualify recovery if you're 50% or less responsible.

FILING DEADLINES AND INSURANCE CLAIMS

Timing is crucial in Florida motorcycle accident cases. You have two years from the accident—or from the date of death in wrongful death cases—to file a lawsuit.

MAXIMIZING YOUR COMPENSATION

To succeed under Florida's comparative negligence law, you must prove the other driver's negligence caused your injuries. Evidence like police reports, dashcam footage, and expert testimony strengthens your case. Keep detailed records of medical treatments, lost wages, and other damages to ensure accurate calculations.

Legal representation is invaluable when navigating Florida's complex fault and insurance systems. Attorneys can gather evidence, negotiate with insurers, and advocate for maximum compensation. With motorcycles disproportionately involved in severe accidents, protecting your rights is essential. By understanding the law and working with experienced professionals like Rue & Ziffra, you can secure the settlement you deserve.

LETTER FROM THE EDITOR

Happy New Year everybody! Here we go, rolling into 2025. It's unbelievable that the 1st quarter of the 21st century is almost behind us. I remember being at one of my best friend's houses for a party on NYE 2020 and we were talking about how time had flown so fast to date (I was 41). We also laughed about how we would be over 65 years old and on social security in 2025. It seemed like an eternity away that night, but here we are. These past 25 years passed by like a blur. One thing that hasn't changed is that I love to ride motorcycles. I did the math, and on all 5 of the bikes I've owned this century, I've logged about 210,000 miles. To most people that's a lot, to others not so much, but that's what I've been able to manage. I feel like I might have at least another 100,000 in me LOL, who knows? But, as long as I can hold it up, I'll be riding it! I have some national rallies on the radar this year that will move the odometer, and if I'm going, I'm riding. As far as the business at hand, the winter and spring rally calendar in Florida is packed full of the usual big ones. Cotee River, Thunder by the Bay, Daytona Bike Week, Leesburg Bike Festival, Thunder Beach are all awesome. Then there are so many anniversary parties, individual 1 day bike shows and events to keep you in the saddle. Get on your bikes and ride. That's what we do! Check the calendar pages inside for all the dates you need to know. If you're not at 210,000 yet, come and catch me!!

See ya on the road,

T. J.

PONY TALES

By Lulu

Seems like 2024 has too many tragic moments and MANY near misses. My friend Shaun was a recent near miss. He still isn't out of the woods as back surgery is in his future, but he was riding with friends, and his "CHEAP" front tire blew out cruising the highway at 90+MPH! The eyewitness account is that he maintained control of the bike until he tried to leave the pavement, then things went to hell in a handbag! Lucky for Shaun he didn't end up in Hell that day! Michael who was riding with him was scared to approach him lying there looking like he was dead, but by the GRACE OF GOD just like Willie he was able to survive for another ride. This picture is Shaun in a back brace on the bike. I feel quite certain this would be against medical advice!!! The reason for this Pony Tales is to remind us all to check your bike for safety. Don't buy cheap tires and then ride like a bat out of hell! And those of us older peeps including Shaun need to realize we don't mend as quickly as in the past. Lastly, I will give Shaun credit for wearing a helmet or the situation could have been much worse!! Hug a friend (maybe not Shaun as he is still sore), buy a stranger a drink and don't forget your sunscreen.

Space Coast Harley-Davidson Fall Rally 2024

By T.J.

In October during Biketoberfest, Space Coast Harley held a 4-day event billed as Beer, Bikes & Beaches. We took the 85-mile ride down I-95 from Daytona to check it out and had a lot of fun. The dealership is beautiful and packed full of beautiful machines. The event featured the H-D demo truck, bikini bike wash girls, vendors, a full bar, live music, and the Ink & Iron Tattoo event. This is a very active Harley store so check out their website for upcoming music and event schedules at SpaceCoastHarley.com.

GATOR H-D FALL RALLY 2024

By Lulu

With back-to-back hurricanes affecting not only the entire state of Florida, Georgia and North Carolina, attendance at Florida's fall rallies took a hit also. Although the crowd wasn't as large as in the past there were still lots of peeps at Gator H-D in Leesburg for the 3 days of bands, bikes, drinks, and vendors. This year the place was rocked by Rock Hard, Time Machine, Bobbie Blackmon, Swamp Juice, and Jeff Vitola & The Quarter Mile Rebels. A sound off contest by Elite Baggerz had some awesome bikes with amazing speaker systems. Coming up next will be their Anniversary Bash on Feb. 1st. check out gatorharley.com for their events and let's make it a big one.

OB's Russ & Bob Panhead/Shovelhead Show 2024

By Lulu

For 23 years in November, OB's in Deland has put on one of the largest Pan/Shovel Shows in Florida. Even with the two hurricanes and a tough economy, peeps came from near and far to SHOW their bikes and to SEE the bikes! The Best in Show Winner, Ron Herman, came from Largo with his 1937 Indian Chief. I would hate to judge these bikes. They all looked great to me! Music by Split Personality entertained the huge crowd. Then the Vintage Ladies Bikini Contest for contestants over fifty happened on stage. Last year over thirteen contestants, this year it was like pulling teeth to get 4 on stage. But the ladies were good sports and Barbara by far had the best attire!!! They all went home with some prize money!! If you haven't ventured out to OB's in Deland, they also have a great bike night on Wednesdays with live music and food specials, the Americana Custom Show is in June and next November it will be the 24th Russ & Bob Show so get those basket builds show ready and come out for the party.

OB's Panhead/Shovelhead Best in Show 1937 Indian Chief 2024

By LULU

Other than a great day of riding, drinking and friends that love motorcycling, bike shows are about a chance to spotlight the many hours someone tinkers in a small shed restoring history or creating a piece of rolling art. And in Ron Herman's case, the Best in Show 1937 Indian Chief, was definitely that. Ron is a native of Erie, PA but escaped the cold for better riding weather and now resides in Largo, Florida. In a 12x14 shed in his backyard, he put together a masterpiece out of pieces he searched the world for. The engine and transmission came from Florida, the rolling chassis, wheels, frame and front end from Albany, NY, but other parts were gathered from South Dakota, California, Belgium, Australia, Czech Republic, and swamp meets! Ron informed me that Australia has the largest collection of 741 model Indians. It took 6 months for him to get this bike together. He also had some help. Jim Seidell from West Hampton, Massachusetts did the transmission and engine work. It is the 219th engine Jim has under his belt. The paint was actually done in his shed (the fourth paint job under Ron's belt) with phone assistance from a friend named Pork in Live Oak. The leather work was done by Wayne Hagler of Heather's Leathers in Clover, SC.

Needless to say, Ron spends hours tinkering in that shed. I asked if his wife is supportive and it almost sounds like she sends him there instead of "the doghouse." He says he has been together with Diane for 14 years, married for twelve, and that she totally supports his past time. His first motorcycle ride at 14 years old was his mother's 305 Honda that he would "steal" out of her garage. His first legal bike was at 19 and was a 650 Yamaha. His stable presently includes a 2016 Indian Vintage and a new "shed project" a 1941 Chief that he is working to turn it into a bobber! Sounds like this 63-year-old biker still has the love of Indians and I can't wait to see his next creation. Thank you, Ron, for bringing this bike to OB's and congrats on your win!

ST. PETE BIKEFEST 2024

By Lulu

Some photos provided courtesy of AB3 Visuals-Taylor Paul

This was our first St. Pete Bikefest since they moved it off the beach! I didn't really know what to expect since it is basically a rally on premise at OCC Road House & Museum and Bert's Barracuda H-D in Clearwater. First, let me say, if you haven't visited OCC, it is really an impressive venue. Large inside restaurant with a museum of the bikes and memorabilia of Orange County Choppers. The bikes are something to see, but I also really enjoyed all the photos and the wall of badges! Then there is the outside venue with two stages under the massive pavilion, outside seating and during the rally, a bunch of vendors.

A huge area outback was the site of the headline concerts and the bike show. Bert's Barracuda next door was jammed full of bikes, apparel, and Harley merch. While we were inside the dealership, I saw two bikes going home with women who had just signed the contract for their brand-new rides! You go girls!! Every day, scantily clad girls were very busy washing bikes.

We didn't arrive until Friday, so we missed Thursday's bands Scotty Austin of Saving Abel and Signs of Sacrifice, the Creed tribute. But the headliners Molly Hatchet on Friday night and Hinder on Saturday night did not disappoint! Other bands daily, throughout the weekend, included Tony Tyler Band, Sunset Strip, The Lost Boys, Shovelhead and Full Throttle Band. 3 great days of music for all to enjoy! An artist, Debra Filipelli, was skillfully painting faces and body parts of the young and old. On Saturday afternoon, while the bike show was going on, Rock & Wrestling simultaneously entertained the masses with 2 matches and even kids from the audience were allowed to go in the ring for a bit to play with the wrestlers. Mechanical "Bull" Shark riding got some of our favorite peeps bucked to the mat. Sadly, we missed the Reign Bikini Contest as we thought it started an hour later, and it was over when we arrived. Later, on Saturday night, in front of the main stage 2 custom builds were unveiled that were to be auctioned off for charitable causes. The bikes built for their new TV series OCC The Next Chapter will benefit 2 separate charities. The first Hudson Valley SPCA to benefit animals will be auctioned off at Mecum. The other build by OCC and Corbin Arena will benefit Back Home Patriots and is being raffled off.

My favorite part of the weekend was the burnout show which included eight bikes from the dealership, in the pit, burning the rubber right off, all at the same time! Amazing! Great burnout show! The ride in bike show trophies were sponsored and presented by Fran Haasch Law Group. Paul Teutle, Sr. led the Sunday morning Sunshine Skyway Ride. Hundreds of bikes made the ride and returned to the festival later.

Closing out the 4-day party was a raffle drawing for a brand new 2024 Heritage. The lucky winner was a local resident who they called live on the phone to notify him that he had won, but he didn't arrive before we packed up and headed out. Every rally we attend has its own personality. This one was fun for us as we met lots of new peeps, saw bikes we haven't seen in the show, loved the 3 days of music and the entire event seemed organized and even family friendly! If you haven't experienced the OCC Roadhouse and Museum and Bert's Barracuda H-D complex, you must do it. It's worth the trip just to see the American Flag that flies 200 feet high above the property. This 100'x 60' symbol of patriotism is the most awesome I have ever seen. Bert's GM John Dempsey called it a "gift to the community." My response, "that is a gift to America"! See y'all there next year!

HARD ICED TEA TWISTED TEA BIKE NIGHT

By Lulu

Our second Twisted Tea Bike Night was hosted by The Other Place on Nova Rd in Ormond Beach. Twisted Tea swag giveaways enhanced an already great weekly Wednesday night bike night, featuring delicious $5 Smashburgers, $2 longnecks, and $2.50 Twisted Teas!! What a bargain! It turned cold that day and a bit wet. The peeps that braved the weather on 2 and 3 wheels showed up in chaps and leathers! Elaine Holt was collecting toys and cash for her Christmas charity. Frog showed up in a Twisted Tea yellow colored antique pick-up truck. Even Steve Coe came for a bit, although he had to run to his girlfriend's home to catch himself on the TV show American Pickers! Gina, the owner of The Other Place and Chris' Lounge, stopped in and it was wonderful to see her looking beautiful and HEALTHY after a health scare in the fall! Our next Twisted Tea featured bike night is Wednesday, January 15th at Boot Hill Saloon. Join us for $3 Twisted Tea, live music by Alias and giveaways!

Rue & Ziffra's Heroes Ride 2024

By Lulu

Each November Rue & Ziffra law firm has hosted a ride out of J&P Cycles in Ormond Beach to honor our first responders, veterans and those who work in medicine. This year the event benefited the Deltona Professional Firefighters Union. After a service at J&P Cycles, donuts and coffee, the bikes followed the police escort to OB's in Deland for live music by Crashrocket and lunch. This event is to "honor valiant first responders who courageously step forward when disaster strikes putting their own lives on the line." Join us next year for this ride. It was a wonderful way to spend a Saturday and makes you feel good that you took the time to personally say thank you to those who serve!

Sorry Charlie's First Annual Chopper Show

By Lulu

Charlie and Amie at Sorry Charlie's Corner in Samsula have really brought back old school fun. In November they threw a Chopper Show and I was completely surprised by how many bikes entered! Along with the bike show they had a Sexy bra and panties contest with a nice cash prize. Kudos to the girls willing to strut their stuff! I tricked some guys into thinking they were going to be on stage to help the girls with their panties and judge, only to find when I handed them each a bag of ladies' panties, that the first one to put on all 8 would win a bar tab! If you haven't found Sorry Charlie's yet. Get on your bike and ride. Their 3rd Anniversary Bash is on February 8th with Whey Jennings, Crashrocket and Sam Lowe. See more photos from the Chopper Show at Thunder Roads Florida Facebook, go to Albums and look for your friends!

JOKER'S WILD

A husband died. A few years later the wife died. As she gets to the Heaven she saw her husband and runs up to him with tears in her eyes. "Darling, oh how I've missed you!" The husband extends his arms, stopping her from embracing him and says very gently, "Whoa up there now missy, the contract was 'until death!'."

A married Irishman went into the Confessional and said to his Priest, "I almost had a one night stand."

The Priest leans in and asks, "What do you mean by almost?"

"Well", replies the Irishman, "we got undressed and rubbed together, but then I just stopped and came to my senses."

The Priest chimes in, "Oh, rubbing together is the same as putting it in." You are not to look that woman in the face ever again and for your penance, say five Hail Mary's and put $50. in the Poor Box."

The Irishman left the Confessional, said his prayers and then walked over to the Poor Box. He paused for a moment and then started to leave.

The Priest, who was watching, quickly ran over to him saying, "I saw that. You didn't put any money in the Poor Box!"

The Irishman tilted his head, looked directly at the Priest and said, "Yes Father, this is true, but I definitely rubbed the $50. bill on the box, and as you just told me, your exact words; "that is the same as putting it in."

Earl and Vern are sitting at their local bar and Vern declares that "I'm not ending my year mad at anyone, so they can just stay in their lane and I'll stay in mine and we're all good."

Earl says, "That is really good news to hear and that makes you a better man Vern, so that $400. that I owe you will just be wiped clean and we're both good, right?"

Vern looks sideways at Earl and says, "Now you're just trying to piss me off. I said I "wasn't going to end the year mad", but if you don't pay me the $400. you owe me, then come January 1st, I am crossing over into your lane and running you off the road unless my $400. is paid earlier in the day."

Here's Wishing A Truly Grrrrreat Kick-Ass 2025, From ALL of Us At the Thunder Roads Magazine Network to ALL of You Fun Loving Bikers!

How come we choose from just (2) people to run for President, yet we choose from over 50 to run for Miss America?

Do Not annoy me at anytime during the month of January, because if you do, I'm giving your cell number to every child I see and telling them that if they're not 100% happy with everything they received for Christmas, then your number is the magical Hotline for Santa.

Just remember, it used to be that calories didn't count until the beginning of January, that has now been changed until February 1st because "they" said that we were doing away with Daylight Savings Time and "they" lied, so we're making our own rules from here on out.

"Hey, ya' feel like doing something?"

"Nah, I was literally just going to hit Zon and see if there's anything that can keep me amused. Why, whatcha got in mind?"

"Just found out my ex-hubby is in Cabo with his new gf and he promised me like 20 times we would go there and never did. I was gonna' go over to his place, crank up the heat to about 90 and leave a dead possum on his couch."

"O.K. then, lemme grab my jacket!"

To all you people with LED headlights, I'm super stoked that you're able to see the hair on a raccoon's azzhole from a mile away, but you are blinding all oncoming trafficALL!!

Me: No more, your dog food bag says 1 cup.

Dog: The Oreo box surely doesn't say 16 Oreos Trish, but here we are

Jesus invited prostitutes to dine with him and he's the light of the world, I invite a few to the family New Year's Party and yet again, I've "made things awkward."

Cleanse smart, not hard, in "smudging" your homes for the New Year, place Sage Sticks in holder and place holder on your Roomba.

I like to find comfort, solace and renewed belief in the fact that no one is an atheist 30 seconds before an orgasm.
