LETTER FROM THE EDITOR

I am writing this on the fly right now. We are in the middle of our 3-week summer golf/motorcycle road trip in New England to visit family and friends. Unfortunately, it's as hot here as it is in Florida, so I feel right at home. After winding down from this trip, we are excited and anxious to get right back into the fall motorcycle rally and riding season. Two 9/11 rides are on tap for those of us that will never forget. Both events have an ad in this issue with details, so come out and ride to remember on the 25th anniversary of that fateful day. Aside from bike stuff, almost everybody anticipates the opening of the NFL and college football seasons. It's a great time of year with fans hoping for their team's success. Go Patriots!! Before you know it, October brings 4 weeks in a row of rallies and events. Can't wait. Get your bikes tuned up and ready to ride. I'm a little all over the place with the message this month. Getting ready to leave early tomorrow morning on a 375-mile bike ride to Bar Harbor Maine and Acadia National Park.

Seeya on the road,

T.J.

PONY TALES

By LuLu

Twenty-five years ago...25!!!! On September 11th, 2001, I woke early to go to a Chamber of Commerce meeting. It was a beautiful sunny day. I walked through the front door of the office and everyone including the men were crying. The president of the Chamber was standing with his hand over his mouth, tears running down his face. They ALL were standing in total disbelief and fear!!! That is how I found out the tragedy that those evil forces rained on our country that day. Those who died woke up like me, grabbed breakfast, got dressed, some put their kids in daycare, said hello to co-workers...and then the nightmare that unfolded NO ONE saw coming! Countless stories of heroism, patriotism, and LOVE also happened in those hours and days after. Thousands of lives were forever changed. Babies born never knew one of their parents, fathers didn't walk their daughters down the aisle. I have been under New York City in the 9/11 Memorial, seen one of the sets of stairs people tried to escape on, been to DC to the Pentagon and read the names of the children in the Day Care and the names of those on the planes on the rows of benches. My goal for 2027 is to visit the field in Pennsylvania where real heroes took their own lives fighting the hijackers to save people on the ground in D.C.

Twenty-five years later memorials still occur. There are two this month whose ads are in the magazine. Fire & Iron will have one out of Mt. Dora AMVETS ending at Gator H-D on 9/12. The Knights of Inferno and the Punishers MC will have one on 9/13 in Bunnell. I am certain wherever you live there will be a memorial. I hope you will take the time to find one and honor those first responders, the innocent victims and everyday heroes that lost their lives because of idiots that hate what America stands for. For 19 years Thunder Roads Florida has attended the ride in Bunnell I am always amazed that hundreds still show up each year. I would expect this to be one of the largest ever. We cannot be there this year as we will be in the mountains that week, but someone representing us will be at both. One last thing here and I get hate mail when I get political, but how can New York City...the apple of capitalism...elect someone that stands with those who harmed New York and hates the very things New York is known for? WE MUST NEVER FORGET!

BIKING BUSINESS H&H INSURANCE LLC

BY GATOR KEN AND JEANI G.

So, you finally purchased that beautiful motorcycle you've had your eye on! Next step, call H&H Insurance LLC to protect your precious metal investment. Located in Holly Hill at 1702 Ridgewood Avenue (Riviera Plaza), Lisa Collalti Hawkins and Sandi Hageman are business partners and have both been in the insurance industry for years. Lisa was licensed in 1996 and Sandi in 2000. Their friendship began 25 years ago and in May of 2012, H&H (Hawkins and Hageman) Insurance was born! As an independent agency, they can shop for your best price among many insurance companies including Progressive and Dairyland. They are licensed and can sell for the entire state of Florida. I'm happy to say they saved Gator Ken and I money on our motorcycles and autos years ago when we switched to H&H, and just recently Lisa found us a great homeowners policy, saving us some nice bucks there as well. Lisa and Sandi provide top-notch customer service; they are both easy to talk to and will patiently explain the ins and outs of insurance, while giving you honest advice on coverage to best meet your needs. They go the extra mile to help you each step along the way! H&H Insurance provides motorcycle, auto, boat, home, collector cars, commercial, recreational vehicle and even pet insurance. They do not handle life or health insurance.

Something really special about these ladies is they are born and raised, native Volusia County residents; rare to find in these parts. Lisa's family is the oldest documented family in the U.S.; her maternal family name is Solana from St. Augustine. Her family was even featured in a documentary on PM Magazine. Sandi's family-owned Cobb's Corner restaurant, which was an iconic stop along The Loop in its day, best known for fresh seafood. Her grandmother was Patricia Lindmeier.

When not busy in the office, Sandi loves spending her free time with her family, which consists of three children and six beautiful grandchildren. If they're not cooling off and splashing or relaxing in their pool, you can find them on boating or camping adventures, and Sandi especially enjoys scalloping over on the west coast of Florida.

Many in the Daytona area know Lisa as "Biker Mama" from either riding with Greg or from behind the bar at Smiley's Tap - she's bartended there for 18 years and simply loves meeting and talking to people! She grew up riding behind her brother on a motorcycle, holding tight while he wheeled down the street. Lisa rode her own bike for several years but has since sold it and now enjoys riding behind the love of her life. Lisa met her boyfriend Greg 12 years ago when his friend suggested he give her a ride on the 9/11 Memorial run in Flagler - they have been inseparable ever since! In her free time, Lisa enjoys being with family; collectively she and Greg have three children and three grandchildren. They love motorcycle adventures, the beach and trail-riding in their Jeep Gladiator to enjoy nature, wildlife and alligator watching.

H&H Insurance loves serving their local community and supports bike runs and golf tournaments. They are proud sponsors of the Iron Horse Saddle Up for St Jude event and also partner with the Holly Hill Police for their summer School Supply and Christmas Toy drives. Both Lisa and Sandi would love to give you a quote and help you with any insurance needs or questions you might have. They are super friendly and would love to hear from you at 386-310-8702. Tell them Thunder Roads Florida sent you ...

3RD ANNUAL ELI'S RIDE FOR A CURE

By Lulu

Paul Matthews is on a mission again. This Desert Storm veteran lost his 10-year-old son to childhood leukemia and since then Paul has dedicated his life and resources to finding a cure and making children that have to suffer through treatments life a little brighter. This year the ride for Eli Seth Matthews Leukemia Foundation started at Seminole Harley-Davidson with coffee and donuts provided by the dealership, 2nd stop was Orlando H-D, although you could also choose to just start the ride there. Then off we rode to Nemours Children's Hospital where the riders brought bags of Hot Wheels for the patients to brighten their day! Eli's dad presented a check for the arts department at the hospital also out of the foundation funds! The ride continued on to Black Hammock and final stop Decision Tactical. John and Donna, from Naughty Hog, organize this ride and have been doing so for 3 years now. Eli's legacy of BELIEVING a cure is possible lives on in his father's hands and all the volunteers and riders that give of their time and money.

Pirate's Pub Too Broke for Sturgis 2026

By GREGG RIGGLE

Ok, up and about, time to move. We're heading to Paisley's Crown Jewel! The Pirate's Pub for their Too Broke for Sturgis event! Now if you've never been there, or just haven't been there in a while, saddle up and follow us. From our home base, West on Hwy. 44 out of New Smyrna Beach straight through downtown Deland. Once that trail leads you to the bridge that will toss you right across the beautiful St. John's River, a traffic light will grab you by the eyeballs at Hwy. 42. Thumb on the right blinker and lean her in the same direction. As the blinker winks at the traffic front and rear, we're going to just blend onto Hwy. 42 and head North. After you've watched right at ten miles disappear into your rear views as this asphalt path slithers its way through a canopy of trees, bumping into Spring Creek Rd. is inevitable. Right onto Spring Creek Rd. then your first left. This will pour right into the parking lot at Pirate's, which has now been transformed into a corral of a sea of iron steeds. Fling out the kickstand and let the fun begin. As if that ride wasn't fun enough.

The libations are flowing, the scent of great food is everywhere, and "Gun Shy" was the band of choice, banging out some tunes from our past. And boy did they bring their "A" game, as always!! Good Call! Kudos and Congratulations to Mark and his amazing staff for keeping everything humming along for the tenth year!!

Judging by the miles of smiles, I'd say a good time was had by all. I know we did!!

If you missed this one you definitely don't want to miss the next one. If you didn't know about this one, every time you're out and about, grab the latest edition of Thunder Roads Florida Magazine. That way you'll always be in the know.

Ride Safe. We'll see you at the next event.

MYRTLE BEACH SPRING RALLY 2026

By Lulu

I haven't been to Myrtle Beach for years, but our friends Steve and Annie were staying at an RV spot there, so we decided to hop up for a few days. Nowadays the rally is centered more around Murrell's Inlet. Mostly we spent the time at Suck, Bang & Blow with Sherry, Jay, Jordan, and Dani on the Roxx for an afternoon with a stop in at Sick Boy's for a couple shirts as he is going off the road after this year! Then a day on the bikes with some of our Florida friends Mike Jones from A OK Guns in New Smyrna, and Big & Little Al. South Carolina is known for golf courses, so we joined Little Al and his friend Doug for a round at Prestwick Golf Course. Traffic certainly wasn't as bad as I remembered from back in the day! Pretty sure I will go back.

The Hideout Lounge's Golf Tournament

By Lulu

Most peeps at Sandrine's Hideout Lounge in Holly Hill enjoy hanging out on the barstools, but Cindy organized an outing for the patrons at Pelican Bay Golf Course to play a round of golf for fun and prizes. TJ and I spend a bit of time on the links so when Sandrine asked if I would come take some pictures, we decided to join in on the fun. I hate to brag but we won!!! Sandrine even showed up to try hitting the ball with a club and after several attempts finally made contact! The Hideout Lounge has a large following of "regulars" which act more like family than customers. This bar is known for their Bloody Mary Sundays so get out of bed, ride your bike in your PJs if you must as they run out early. The next golf outing is scheduled for Saturday, November 7th, at 9am. This time it will benefit Pups N Pals (service dog training for veterans). Come and play!

ROARING TWENTIES AT LONG'S LOG CABIN

By LULU

Long's Log Cabin in Welaka is known for two things: great music and throwing fun parties! Whether it is celebrating the Irish for St. Patty's, their Halloween Ever After costume party, or the Roaring Twenties event we attended in June...the place goes all out! For this event men and women came dressed in Roaring Twenties attire, even the staff was dressed like barkeeps from the 20's. The band that kept all on the dance floor was J W Gilmore and the Blues Authority. It is worth getting a cabin to spend the night or entire weekend to party like rock stars with Waylon and Tonya Long.

The text is bold and colorful, announcing the event dates and location. The poster lists the lineup of bands and performers for Friday, Saturday, and Sunday.

JOKER'S WILD

Whenever I hear about a new disease, I Google it to see if I have any symptoms. When I get to the "Unexplained weight loss" part, I know I'm safe.

Just read the back window of the car in front of me at red light that read:
I'm Going To Collage!
I thought, that's really good. Not enough people still do Collage these days. Good hobby.

Some people meditate or work out in the morning I stand in the kitchen holding my mug of coffee and staring out the window like a confused raccoon. Life has so many different approaches.

Due to financial reasons, I've decided to start posting adult content.
Today's Topics:
Heartburn, Lower Back Pain and where in the hell did I put my keys?

I just grilled a chicken for 2 hours and the tough ass bird STILL wouldn't tell me why it crossed the damn road!

Read the vowels in CELINE DION out loud, ok, you're welcome, carry on.

Did parents really just let their kids wander the hood all day with no cellphone and say; Be back home before dark and I mean it too!
Yes! they did and it literally worked like magic. Good training for future negotiations.

Shout Out! to everyone who takes the back off the remote control and rolls the batteries around instead of just replacing them.
HOPE springs eternal, love the positivity!

I recently came into a large amount of money ... Which is probably why I got fired from the bank.

It's STILL hot outsideKeep your dang pumpkin spice away from my margarita!

Some smart-ass jerk gets pulled over in his Ferrari for speeding thru a cross walk for kids school. He quickly yells at the Cop already writing his ticket, "Do you have any idea who my father is?"

Was out at Tractor Supply and this guy behind me was talking to me as I was checking out and he asked me "what should I do with my leftover bacon?" I looked him straight in the eyes and said, "To be honest with ya' sir, I've never heard of such a thing."

Wanna know a secret on how to make a woman go: mmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmm all night long? 2 words duct tape

Me: Babe, bring me a screwdriver would ya'
Wife: Flat Head, Phillips or Vodka?
And that my friends is when you know for a fact that She is the one!

Saying "shark-infested waters" is like saying, "human-infested houses." I mean, they live there man, that's just rude.

People by calling me up asking "wyd?" at 2 a.m. and ima like Yeah, ima outside just hanging out with the Avengers.

When you throw the trash out, do you go outside later and check on how it's doing? NO! You do not SO! Stop talking to your ex!

One thing I know for sure - You can't drink all day without starting early in the morning -

I quit smoking so now, I am always at work and thinking, Man, I could really use a candy cigarette break right about now.

Just curiousWhy don't they have light soda or diet beer?
